

Conflict of interest policy

All volunteers and Trustees of Jack and Pals Therapy Dogs will strive to avoid any conflict of interest between the interests of the organisation on the one hand, and personal, professional, and business interests on the other. This includes avoiding actual conflicts of interest as well as the perception of conflicts of interest.

The purposes of this policy is to protect the integrity of Jack and Pals Therapy Dogs decision-making process, to enable volunteers to have confidence in the organisation's integrity, and to protect the integrity and reputation of volunteers, and Trustees.

Examples of conflicts of interest include:

- A Trustee or volunteer who is related to a volunteer or Trustee and there is decision to be taken on conditions at a committee meeting.
- A Trustee or volunteer who is also on the committee of another organisation that is competing for the same funding.

Upon appointment each Trustee will make a full, written disclosure of interests, such as relationships, and posts held, that could potentially result in a conflict of interest. This written disclosure will be kept on file and will be updated annually or as appropriate.

In the course of meetings or activities, Trustees will disclose any interests in a transaction or decision where there may be a conflict between the organisations' best interests and the Trustee's best interests or a conflict between the best interests of two organisations that the Trustee is involved with. If in doubt the potential conflict must be declared anyway and clarification sought.

In the case of a conflict of interests arising for a Trustee because of a duty of loyalty owed to another organisation or person and the conflict is not authorised by virtue of any other provision in the constitution, the unconflicted trustees may authorise such a conflict of interests where the following conditions apply:

1. The Charity Commission's permission is sought before a benefit for a trustee may be authorised that isn't otherwise authorised in the Memorandum of Articles or already authorised in writing from the Commission.
2. The Trustee who has declared the conflict of interest withdraws from the part of the meeting at which there is discussion of any arrangement or transaction affecting that other organisation or person;

3. The Trustee who has the conflict of interest does not vote on any such matter and is not to be counted when considering whether a quorum of Trustees is present at the meeting;
4. The other Trustees who have no conflict of interest in this matter may consider it is in the interests of the charity to authorise the conflict of interest in certain circumstances.
5. Any such disclosure and the subsequent actions taken will be noted in the minutes.

For all other potential conflicts of interest, the advice of the Charity Commission will be sought and the advice recorded in the minutes. All steps taken to follow the advice will be recorded. This policy is meant to supplement good judgment, volunteers and Trustees should respect its spirit as well as its wording.

 A relative may be a child, parent, grandchild, grandparent, brother, sister, spouse or civil partner of the Trustee or any person living with the Trustee as his or her partner'

Review
